Series of Reprints of the Rare Classical Works of Natural History.

No. I.

Rafinesque, C. S. Neogenyton, or Indication of Sixty-six New Genera of Plants of North America, 1825.

Price, 25c per Copy

Postage 2 cents extra.

Exact photographic reproduction of this important text. Good as the original for practical purposes. This pamphlet contains a number of the Rafinesquian Genera now commonly recognized as valid by botanists generally, as also others that are not, but will sooner or later receive recognition.

No student of botany should be without this valuable work now so easily available.

Series of Reprints of the Rare Classical Works of Natural History.

No. 2.

Rafinesque, C. S. Monographie des Coquilles Bivalves et Fluviatiles de la Riviere Ohio. Remarques sur les Rapports Naturels des Genres Viscum, Samolus et Viburnum. A Bruxelles, De l'Imprimerie de Weissenbruch pere, Rue du Musee, No. 1057 (1820). [Part of Annals of Nature,] pp. 17 to 60 (41 pages).

Price, $1.50 per Copy

Postage 2 cents extra.

Probably the most sought for classic on American Conchology, and as rare as it is valuable. We have not seen an original copy for sale! This reprint is as good as the original for the working conchologist. The title page and 2nd page and the three plates are fac-simile reproductions and the text is a word-for-word reprint with the exact paging of the original. A number of new genera and species were published in this first important monograph, and it is therefore indispensable to the practical student of American shells.
